recruiting records say. But I Scotland to do better than Engand Ireland and Wales all put to

er. I want us to do so we Bruce and Wallace shall rise their graves and say 'Oh, that alive so lead such men!'
"And this I reel from the my heart. The cause for land is fighting today is far greater cause than v for which those two here Wallace, fought. They small country's freed

fighting to save the w

POUNABURG

GRUSOKOIO

FORTIFIED CITIES

PRICE FIVE CENT

ONLY TWO MORE NIGHTS OF

FEATURING ROBERT WARWICK

Every Night a Packed House

- COMING -

Emma Dunn in MOTHER

PRICES

10, 20, 30 CENTS

Cabaret.

Choice seats for Tuesday night at the Popular Theater may be secured of Mr. J. D. Levenson, Mr. Strange of Honolulu Gas Co. or the Star-Bulletin office.

CONCERT

MARION DOWSETT WORTHINGTON

Friday Evening, March 26th, 1915 at 8:30 p. m. Alexander Young Hotel Pavilion

Tickets may be obtained at the Hawaiian Promotion Rooms, Territorial Messenger Service, Bergstrom Music Co. and Honolulu Music

TICKETS $1.50

Expert Furniture Movers

Prices Reasonable Baggage handled with promptness

Union - Pacific Transfer

King St., next to Young Miles

Skating Honolulu

AFTERNOON-2 to 5 TARRY WHITCOMB

PHONE 2295 REACHES Hustace- Peck Co.

ALL KINDS OF ROCK AND SAND FOR CONCRETE WORK. 98 QUEEN STREET. P. O. BOX 212

COUPON

STAR-BULLETIN

WAR MAP OF EUROPE

Denies, a Hawsian woman with relatives on Fort street retains, took poison with suitent yesterday afternoon. She can be demanded and three of these coupons and Fifteen Cents

Bend three of these coupons and Fifteen Cents to the Star-Bulletin and receive the new and app-to-date map of Europe.

Commended By Daniels

(Special to the Hawali Shinpo.)

TOKIO, March 21.—T. Kobata, secretary of Japanese legation as Peking, will have another conference with the conferenc up-to-date map of Europe.

Finances Scheme to Rouse done well already. We've done a lot better than England, from what Sons of Scotland to Their Responsibilities

The rong ceased. To my ears, says a writer in the Dundee People's Jour-nal, as I stood below the stage at a dressing-room door in the King's the dressing-room door in the King's the ater, Dundee, came a sound like the roaring and crashing of water over Niagara Falls—thousands of voices shouting, thousands of hands clapping—mingled with ear-piercing whistles. Two infinites later a short, broadshould gred man in a khaki suit and a gaudy wig came clattering down the stairway from the stage. He was filling a big pipe, and whistling to him-

"Good evening, Mr. Lauder. I'm waiting to have a talk about this pa-triotic scheme of yours. I understand you've turned recruiting-sergeant?" Harry Lauder shook hands, and led the way into his dressing-room. He took off his wig, and wiped the sweat from his brow. When he turned from the dressing-table, his face, in spite of the painted eyebrows and the rous on the cheeks, did not make one this of a world-famous comedian. It's pression had become suddenly very rious. Harry Lauder has taken this latest role of his in dead each Scotland's Great Opportunity. "A recruiting sergeant you ca'in' me? Well, I hinna turn exactly, for I've nae army tions. But I'm tryin' tae d can to oring the men up to I'm tryin' tae dae what Scotland see that now opportunity for livin ditions of her glorious Harry Lauder's ey if only I was 20 YENST be doing somethin ing songs—though I'd be carrying Harry seated the filling of by quite forgotter At once he con LAW the band of i equipped, and LOCK through the ter with the stra he Harry La have ever s

"This war," he went on. "is greatest thing that has ever has to the world. And I want Scot to come out of it with more of than rny other country. Scotland lead the van. We must cross to H in thousands—not in penny num "Are you making any arrans whereby men who have been to enthusiasm by your pipers the army while they're in the I saked him. "It's a good strike while the iron's hold "Ay, I've thocht o' that swered. "Wherever the pear the recruitin' service." swered. "Wherever the pear, the recruitin' service place will be warmly tend an dae what the likely lads. I ought that a first-class speak genuine fire in him pipers on their tou recruitin' speeches jist appear at a sing either. The town in the lown in the l toer o' a' the Burian, recent-drums beatin' plan loreign min-in'! They'll lungarian and has Lauder's Ambortant diplomatic "Scotland, beeded Count von

Germany's course ace with Italy very

DRT FIGURES

Two te ON, D. C., March 22,-Melodinted to $42,500,000, ac-The Poreport made public today, Dranglish figures are $465,000, > COLUMBIA OUSES WRECKED R. B. C., March 22.—An wrecked the bunkhouse is coal mine.

ENDS LIFE AKING POISON: IOTIVE IS MYSTER

TATUTE MILES

and, March 22.—A despatch to the Central that Italy has stopped all railway freight y by way of Switzerland.

OPONEVIEZH

LONDON, England, March 22.—Sir Edward Grey, ereign secretary, in a statement made today said that night have been avoided by a European conference when a there Germany desired. Germany refused every suggestion a continued, and on her rests the responsibility for the war.

J. S. to Send Notes on Developments

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.—A statement came from the White House today that America will soon send a note to Great Britain containing representations on some features of the trade blockade established by the Allies against Germany, and which is interfering with American commerce.

Representations will also be made, according to the White House, upon the sinking of the American ship W. P. Frye the south Atlantic by the German Auxiliary Prinz Eitel Friedrich. These representations are now being prepared.

TO BE AD CLUB GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Jack London will be special guests of the Ad Club next Wednesday, which has been set aside as ladies' day by the club.

Jack London is much interested in the proposal to enter the schooner yacht Hawaii in the coming transpacific race and he has some interesting things to say in that connection.

CONFERENCE IN PEKING OVER DEMANDS TUESDAY PLUCKY U. S. SAILORS

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]
WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22—
The navy department is aending sirculars to all former salers in the navy to induce them to enter the naval reserve. It is estimated that 50,000 are available. The department favors clubs in localities where former enfistments were numerous.

[Associated Press by Federal Wireless]
(SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 22—Vice-President Marchail was the central figure at an official reception in the California building on the exposicial call on Admiral Thomas B. Howard, commanding the Pacific float, and there was a review on the vessel. A salute was fired for the vice-presidentiel flag.

NO EXTRA SESSION, IS FORMAL ANNOUNCEMENT MADE BY THE PRESIDENT

Associated Press by Federal Wireless WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22,-Formal announcement was made today by the president that he does not in-tend to call an extra session of Con-gress.

a few months, coming to Honolulu
the windward side of the island.

Superintendent Wise of Kapiolani
thy Sheriff Asch in his capacity coroner may hold an inquest this will be used for decorative purposes, will be announced later

SIR EDWARD GREY DECLARES RESPONSIBILITY UATION RESTS UPON GERMANY—UNITED STAT TO SEND NOTE TO ENGLAND UPON BLOCKAT TRADE PRESIDENT INVESTIGATING ODENWALD DENT-AUSTRIAN ATTACK ON SERBIA A NEGRO RESUMED

[Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless.] PETROGRAD, Russia, March 22.—Czar Nicholas joined in the wild demonstrations of joy over the news that Pract had fallen before the Russians. He participated in the sp Te Deum, which gave a religious flavor to the public demon strations.

LONDON, England, March 22.—The Austrian stronghold of Przemysl has fallen after a siege of several months by the Russian investing forces.

Six thousand Austrians have been made pris 6000 dead and wounded were left as a result of the final sortie The remnants of the garrison which attempted the desperate sortie were captured. The original garrison was 80,000 soldiers.

The next objective move for the Russian armies on this part of the east front is Cracow.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22 .- At the White House today emphatic denial was made to the report that there is a split in the cabinet over the policy of silence by the United States in the Japanese-Chinese controversy.

President Wilson is not disposed to discuss for publication what negotiations are afoot.

Russians Launch Assaults Along Long Line From Baltic to Black Sea

LONDON, England, March 22.-The Russians are making simultaneous attack along the tremendously long battle-line from the Baltic to the Black Sea.

Russia claims to have won a victory in the fighting against the Turks in Armenia.

The Austrian attack on Serbia and Montenegro has been

Holland Wants Germany to Explain

THE HAGUE, Netherlands, March 22 .- The government has telegraphed a request to Berlin for an explanation of the forcible seizure of the Dutch merchant vessels Batavier and Vzaanstroom by a German submarine.

Austrians Recede in Carpathians

PETROGRAD, Russia, March 22.-While the Austrians in eastern Galicia are vigorously assaulting the Russians there. in the Carpathian passes they are receding before the Blav advance.

Wilson Investigates Odenwald Incident

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.-President Wilson, it is learned today, is investigating the Odenwald incident. The German steamer Odenwald, attempting to steal out of the harbor of San Juan, Porto Rico, was stopped when two shots were fired across her bows, and held by port officials. She had been a refugee in the harbor since last August.

The steamer is held under the recent enactment empower-COMMENDED BY DANIELS ing the president to prevent shipments of supplies for belligerents at sea." The war department and the treasury department are also investigating the Odenwald incident.

Germans Retake Memel, East Prussis

BERLIN, Germany, March 22.-Official-Memel, in the extreme north of East Prussia, has been captured from the Russians. The Russians have been found to be looting private